

 Reverse List 10 things you cannot do on a boat.	What if? What if a new student who couldn't speak English arrived in your class today?	Disadvantages List disadvantages of living in a new country. List ways to overcome them.	 Combination  What if the Australian and Vietnamese flags were combined? Draw what the new flag would look like.	Alphabet Do an A – Z of words associated with The Little Refugee.
BAR Draw Anh's boat. Now:  B - make it Bigger  A - Add something  R - Replace one part	Variation How many ways can you make a new classmate feel welcome?	Picture Use only these three shapes to draw a picture that represents something from the book. 	Prediction Anh Do and his family arrived in Australia in 1980. Predict what Australia will be like in 2080.	Different Uses Think of 10 different uses for a dress.
 Ridiculous Give reasons why every child must read The Little Refugee once a week.	Commonality  What do Vietnam and Australia have in common? Draw a Venn diagram.	The Question 'A pirate' is the answer. List 5 questions.	Brainstorming Brainstorm ways to encourage children to appreciate other cultures.	Invention Design a machine that could turn the pages of the picture book for you.
Interpretations You must leave your home to seek refuge in another country. Explain why this might have happened.	Brick Wall Consider alternatives to sending refugees to Papua New Guinea. Apart from PNG, where else could refugees live?	Construction Construct an outline of a fishing boat using a piece of A4 paper, straws and sticky tape.	Forced Relationship How might a shoe, a hair tie and a mango be used to help a new student in your class?	Alternative List different ways to help improve the lives of refugees around the world.

